

P U B L I C A D V I S O R Y

The Swedish National Food Administration recommends that women who are trying to conceive a baby or who are pregnant or who are breastfeeding should not eat the Swedish fish pike nor perch more than 2 to 3 times a year, due to possible mercury contamination...

