Mercury levels above 1 ppm can be linked to brain damage, IQ loss, and kidney and heart damage. Fetal neurological damage can begin at mercury levels greater than 0.58 ppm.

(US EPA reference dose for mercury in human hair is equivalent to 1 ppm.)